gram.

SEC. 8. Prior to the revocation of the tribal constitution provided for in this Act, the Secretary is authorized to undertake, within the limits of available appropriations, a special program of education and training designed to help the members of the tribe to earn a livelihood, to conduct their own affairs, and to assume their responsibilities as citizens without special services because of their status as Indians. Such program may include language training, orientation in non-Indian community customs and living standards, vocational training and related subjects, transportation to the place of training or instruction, and subsistence during the course of training or instruction. For the purposes of such program, the Secretary is authorized to enter into contracts or agreements with any Federal, State, or local governmental agency, corporation, association, or persons. Nothing in this section shall preclude any Federal agency from undertaking any other program for the education and training of Indians with funds appropriated to it.

AN ACT

September 21, 1959
[H. R. 6190]

To direct the Secretary of the Army to convey the Army and Navy General Hospital, Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, to the State of Arkansas, and for other purposes.

Arkansas.
Conveyance.

70A Stat. 147.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) the Secretary of the Army is authorized and directed to convey to the State of Arkansas by quitclaim deed, without consideration and without regard to the provisions of section 2662 of title 10 of the United States Code, but subject to the conditions, limitations, and reservations hereinafter set forth, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to approximately twenty-one acres, more or less, of land located at Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, which comprise a part of the reservation presently occupied by the Army and Navy General Hospital, together with all buildings and improvements situated thereon and all appurtenances and utilities belonging or appertaining thereto.

Limitation.

(b) The conveyance authorized by this Act may not include any part of that portion of the Hot Springs National Park, comprising approximately three and one-half acres hereinafter described by metes and bounds, presently occupied in part by the National Park Service, or any building, improvement, appurtenance, or utility appertaining thereto, or any personal property situated thereon. Such buildings, improvements, appurtenances, and utilities are hereby transferred to the Department of the Interior. The limitation made by the first sentence of this subsection applies to that portion of such park described as follows: Beginning at the west iron road gate post on the property line at Reserve Avenue at point A, northwesterly along the curb line to point B approximately midway along the curb line immediately east of building numbered 16; thence northeasterly to terminus of the rock wall at point C; thence northeasterly to the junction of the rock wall and the rock and masonry wall at point D; thence northeasterly along the rock and masonry wall to its junction with the United States Government property line at point E; thence southerly and westerly along the property line to the starting point at point A, containing approximately 3.5 acres, being the land shown on sheet 9 of 10 sheets, drawing numbered 109, entitled "Master Plan Army and Navy General Hospital, General Utility Map, as revised by the National Park Service, April 20, 1959, Dwg. No. NP-HS-7005."

SEC. 2. The deed of conveyance executed pursuant to this Act shall expressly reserve to the United States (a) all mineral rights in the land so conveyed, and (b) full title to all thermal waters on and under such land. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to grant to the State of Arkansas a permit for the use of so much of such waters as may be required for the use of such land by the State for the purposes described in section 3 of this Act.

Reservation.

SEC. 3. The deed of conveyance of real property authorized by this Act shall include the conditions that (a) such property shall be used by the State of Arkansas as a vocational rehabilitation center or for other public health or educational purposes, (b) if at any time the Secretary of the Army determines, upon advice received from the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, that the property so conveyed is not used for such purposes, title thereto shall immediately revert to the United States, and (c) in the event of any such reversion, title to all improvements made thereon by the State of Arkansas during its occupancy shall vest in the United States without payment of compensation therefor.

Conditions,

SEC. 4. The deed of conveyance of the real property authorized by this Act shall include appropriate provisions to insure that (a) whenever the Congress of the United States declares a state of war or other national emergency, or the President declares a state of emergency, and upon the determination by the Secretary of Defense that the property conveyed under this Act is useful or necessary for military, air, or naval purposes, or in the interest of national defense, the United States shall have the right, without obligation to make payment of any kind, to reenter upon the property and use the same or any part thereof, including any and all improvements made thereon by the State of Arkansas, for a period not to exceed the duration of such state of war or national emergency plus six months, and (b) upon the termination of such use by the United States, the property shall be returned to the State of Arkansas, together with any or all improvements thereon and appurtenances appertaining thereto.

Right of reentry.

SEC. 5. In executing the deed of conveyance authorized by this Act, the Secretary of the Army shall include such other reservations and conditions as he and the Secretary of the Interior shall determine to be required in the public interest.

SEC. 6. Upon the execution of that deed of conveyance, the Secretary of the Army is further authorized, subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of the first section of this Act, to transfer to the State of Arkansas, without consideration, such equipment and personal property located at the Army and Navy General Hospital as he shall determine to be required for use by the State for the purposes stated in section 3 of this Act.

Equipment and personal property.

SEC. 7. In the event the State of Arkansas does not accept the conveyance authorized by this Act on or before June 30, 1960, the Secretary of the Army shall thereafter report to the Administrator of the General Services Administration as excess property pursuant to the Non acceptance of conveyance.

40 USC 471 note.

provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377), as amended, all the lands and improvements thereon comprising the Army and Navy General Hospital, Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas, and said lands and improvements thereon shall cease to be a part of the Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Secretary of the Interior may take custody and control of any or all of the lands and improvements thereon comprising the Army and Navy General Hospital, and restore such lands and improvements to the Hot Springs National Park, if (a) the State of Arkansas does not accept the conveyance authorized by this Act on or before June 30, 1960, or (b) title thereto reverts to the United States following the conveyance thereof to the State of Arkansas.
